

ACTIVITY

The Energy Pie

Can you guess what portion of total home energy use goes to power each of these activities in a typical North American home? Print this page and label each piece of the pie with the activity you think matches it. See the next page for the answers.

- Lighting
- Heating & Cooling
- Large Appliances
- Water Heating
- Other Devices & Appliances
- Home Electronics

Continue >

ACTIVITY

The Energy Pie (continued)

Here are the portions of total home energy use that power the various activities in a typical North American home:

- Lighting—4%
- Heating & Cooling—53%
- Large Appliances—10%
- Water Heating—15%
- Other Devices & Appliances—14%
- Home Electronics—4%

